Bridges II
Art Exhibition
International Artists Exchange
at jgallery Moulton Northamptonshire
5th August~30th August

'Two different cities on two different continents'

An artistic exchange between Tucson Arizona and Northampton UK

8 American artists join 8 British artists.

This partnership event was started by Kathleen Velo (USA) in 2004. Her vision was to connect her school in Tucson and Northampton College UK through the arts.

The title 'Bridges' offers a common theme to evoke the nature of the exhibition- to create a path and a meeting place for an artistic conversation to begin., shared with both viewers on both sides of "THE POND" An invitation to the differences and relationships between two different cities.

The Private View on Friday 5th August 6~9pm will be opened by Mr. David Kennedy: - Chief Exec of Northampton Borough Council.

Mr. Chris Millar Chief exec of Daventry District Council.

Cara Rodway representing the American Embassy London (joint sponsors of Bridges II:-American Artists)

Refreshments will be served and a free wine tasting session will be available during the evening sponsored by AMPS FINEWINES.
